

Faith and the Environment

Hosted by the Faith Network for Manchester, November 16th 2009

The evening began with stalls from environmental groups and organisations in Manchester including Manchester Climate Fortnightly, MERCi, Action for Sustainable Living and Faiths for Change

Speakers included Clive Pyot on Buddhism, Rev John Hughes on Christianity, Zahid Hussein on Islam and Rabbi Warren Elf on Judaism.

A hot vegetarian meal was followed by an introduction to recent work by Faiths for Change and Operation Noah

The results of group work on 'the problems we see and how to address them' were displayed on a wishing tree
